

East Hamilton Middle School

6th Grade 2023 Summer Reading

6th Grade Instructions for Summer Reading:

Required:

1. Read Bud, Not Buddy by Christopher Paul Curtis.
2. When you finish reading Bud, Not Buddy, complete the Summer Reading Reflection Questions listed on the bottom half of this page.
3. This summer reading will contribute to your grade in ELA class.

Extra Credit:

4. Choose one book, either fiction or nonfiction, that is interesting to you and is on your reading level. It must be a chapter book.
5. When you finish reading your chosen book, complete the book review on the back of this page to earn an extra credit grade in your ELA class.

All summer reading must be completed by Thursday, August 31!

Summer Reading Reflection Questions

Instructions: Answer these questions about the book Bud, Not Buddy by Christopher Paul Curtis. Please respond with thoughtful, complete sentences, and use text evidence to support your answers.

1. Which character do you connect with the most in the book? Why?
2. What are the major obstacles that the main character faces? Explain why you think these are most important.
3. If you could "jump" into the story, which part would you choose, and what would you do? How would your changes affect the outcome of the story?
4. What is a life lesson or moral that someone could learn from this story? Explain your thinking.